Between Kyiv and Vienna:

Histories of People, Ideas, and Objects in Circulation and Motion

■ This multidisciplinary conference seeks to reexamine the modern history of the space broadly bounded today by Ukraine and Austria, through the lens of circulation and motion. It considers people who moved within, out of, and into the region, interrogating the forces that drove them and the consequences of their movement; examines the flow of ideas that were articulated, set in motion, and resonated in lived experience; and asks how the circulation of material objects, goods, and resources impacted societies and the environment, shaping the relations and hierarchies between places and people.

IWM'S PROGRAM: UKRAINE IN EUROPEAN DIALOGUE

The IWM's Ukraine in European Dialogue program was initiated in 2015 by Permanent Fellow Timothy Snyder. Continuing the IWM's long tradition of intellectual and practical solidarity with societies in transition, the program includes fellowship programs, workshops, conferences, and public events in both Vienna and Ukraine. Program fellows also contribute to a focal point in Eurozine.

Since July 2018, the Ukraine in European Dialogue program is administered by Research Director Katherine Younger.
