

Instructor: Prof. David E. Fishman
Jewish Theological Seminary of America and YIVO Institute
DAFISHMAN@jtsa.edu

From Hasidic Piety to Secular Yiddishism:
Jewish Culture in Eastern Europe 1750-1939

Lviv Summer School
Jewish History, Multiethnic Past,
and Common Heritage: Urban Experience in Eastern Europe
July 13 – August 7, 2015
Center for Urban History. Lviv, Ukraine

1. Tradition and the Rise of Hasidism

Solomon Maimon, “On a Secret Society” from The Autobiography of Solomon Maimon (first ed. 1792-93) , in Gershon Hundert (ed.), Basic Papers on Hasidism, New York University Press, 1991 pp. 11-24.

2. Haskalah and Jewish Enlightenment

Selections from Isaac Ber Levinson, Teudah Be-Yisrael [Testimony Regarding the People of Israel] (1828), in Walter Ackerman (ed.), Out of Our People's Past, United Synagogue, 1977, pp. 391-395.

Fragment from S. J. Abramovitch [=Mendele Moykher Sforim], The Travels of Benjamin the Third (first ed. 1878) , in Joachim Neugreuschel (ed.). The Shtetl, pp. 179-194.

3. Zionism and the Formation of Jewish National Culture

Adad Ha'am, “Spiritual Revival”, in Selected Essays of Ahad Ha'am, edited by Leon Simon, pp. 253-306.

4. Modern Yiddish Culture

I.L. Peretz's Opening Speech at the Czernowitz Conference for the Yiddish Language

(1908)

Sholem Aleichem, "City of the Little People", "The Inheritors", "A Yom Kippur Scandal", from Favorite Tales of Sholom Aleichem, trans Julius and Frances Butwin, pp. 1-7, 8-20, 138-145.